Description

Gather round, all ye Mohammadi Bros fans: I've got a rare treat in the house today! An Alt Robab, shining like moonlight on the water with it's delicate and complex built. Mohammadi Bros only built a handful of these, so the odds of finding another Alt Robab like this one are pretty slim--and what a beast! The bass is crisp and explosive, and there's an awe-inspiring clearness in the separation of notes that will leave your every arrangement lush and orchestral. With the classic combination of one piece walnut body and lamb skin for the top, this Mohammadi Bros Alt-Robab more than lives up to its heritage.

Unfortunately i did not get enough time from the customer to make more pictures of this beauty.
