Description
IN STOCK!

This oud is an oud with gumption. The chocolatey very old lug walnut gives it a sustaining and rich low end, with the clear and present mids and sweet, fat trebles vaulting forth from the silky 5A grade German Spruce top. It has a spirit and energy about it, picking quick and strong for the group player in all of us. But sit back in a quiet room and you'll be caught, enraptured within the voice of this delicate powerhouse you hold in your hands. Come bear witness to the work of a man whose voice has captured us all, player and collector alike.

This oud is so much fun to play. The tone is unique and has its own appeal unlike any other instrument. Since Mohammadi Bros made this, it will remain a collectible for many years to come.

This oud is 2 year old, pre-owned and new/mint condition! The oud comes from a quiet famous Iranian Tar player who wanted to learn playing oud, but lack of time and keeping the oud as a case queen brought him to decide selling this beauty.
